

Diego Lucero

Graduate Student, Chicano & Chicano Studies
dlucero21@unm.edu

EDUCATION

M.A, Chicana and Chicano Studies, University of New Mexico, In Progress

B.A., Journalism and Mass Communications, New Mexico State University, May 2003

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Media resources manager, City of Albuquerque 2005 to present

Owner and Operator, Duke City CrossFit, 2021 to present

Production and photojournalist, KRQE News 13, 2003 - 2005

PROFESSIONAL HONORS

- Rocky Mountain Emmy Nomination, Mayor Keller's State of the City, 2021
 - Multiple National Association of Telecommunications Officers and Advisors Programming Awards
 - Rocky Mountain Emmy Nomination, Albuquerque Heading Home documentary, 2012
 - Fourth Place, Photographer's Forum National Photography Contest, 2000
-

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Member of the internal engagement team to support the Race, History, and Healing Project, City of Albuquerque, 2020

The community engagement team supports the coordination of a months-long public process to address the next steps with the Oñate statue. The Race, History, and Healing Project could become an example for future processes to address placement, names, and representation in civic spaces

PUBLISHED MEDIA

Mayor Tim Keller's State of the City | Uncharted Territory (2021)

<https://youtu.be/dteKgWmCnsI>

How do Public Art projects get made? (2020)

<https://youtu.be/5OFd5m8DwJM>

What is a monument? What is Public Art? What is the Difference? (2020)

<https://youtu.be/om9Hjcvf8uY>

Hispanic Heritage Month, the Albuquerque Museum gives a behind-the-scenes tour.

<https://youtu.be/AhSpX-xPLX4>

Albuquerque Heading Home Documentary

<https://youtu.be/ixG0yASoLaA>

CERTIFICATIONS

CrossFit Level 2 Instructor