

DANIEL SALCIDO

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

M.A. Candidate, Chicana and Chicano Studies
Expected graduation December 2024

Albuquerque, NM
August 2022-Present

METROPOLITAN STATE UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

Bachelor of Arts
Majors: Chicano Studies

Denver, CO
May 2018

COMMUNITY COLLEGE OF DENVER

Associate of Arts
Majors: General Studies

Denver, CO
May 2016

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

METROPOLITAN STATE UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

Beyond Chicanismo Oral History Project Event Coordinator (2005-2013)

- Planned oral history interviews and presentations.
- Created promotional flyers and advertisements.
- Wrote successful funding proposals/grants.
- Curated and maintained a video library which consists of over 100 oral history interviews.
- Coordinated speaker series.
- Conducted research.
- Established relationships with student organizations.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Chicana/o Movement Ideology and Practices, Chicana/o Indigeneity, Decolonizing Methodologies, Internal Colonialism, Chicana/o and Latina/o Civil Rights Movements, Chicana/o Oral History, Colorado History, U.S. Social Movements, Politics and Social Justice, Critical Pedagogy.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Documentary Film screening, "Symbols of Resistance: A tribute to the Martyrs of the Chican@ Movement"

February 2, 2018, West High School, Denver, CO

Planned and Co-organized a showing of the Freedom Archives produced documentary entitled "Symbols of Resistance: A tribute to the Martyrs of the Chican@ Movement." The film showing was followed by a panel presentation featuring activists and youth from the program.

Tierra Amarilla Youth Leadership Institute

July 2000-2018, Tierra Amarilla, NM/Greeley, CO/Denver, CO

Planned, Co-organized, and taught Chicana/o-Mexicana/o history, art, and social justice courses at the annual summer week-long educational youth camp on the Tierra Amarilla land trust. The Youth Leadership Institute provides cultural work and educational experiences for historically underserved Mexican origin youth.

La Raza Youth Leadership Conference (LRYLC)

April 2005-2017, Denver, CO

Planned and presented workshops at the annual La Raza Youth Leadership Conference (LRYLC) entitled: Identity, Consciousness, Land and Liberation.

Ayotzinapa/#Caravana 43

April 12-13, 2015, Denver, CO/Greeley, CO/Longmont, CO

Co-organized the visit of a group of parents from Ayotzinapa, Guerrero to speak about their struggle for justice and to build solidarity across the imposed border.

Symbols of Resistance: A Tribute to the Martyrs of the Chican@ Movement

May 2014, Denver, CO

Co-organized a series of events that commemorated and honored the martyrs of the Chicano Movement from Colorado, documented Chicano movement history, and continued the struggle for self-determination and social justice on the 40th anniversary of the deaths of Chicano student activists known as Los Seis De Boulder.

May Day Block Party for Immigrant Rights

May 1, 2011, Denver, CO

Organizer

May Day March for Immigrant Rights

May 1, 2010, Denver, CO

Organizer

Swift Raids Support

2006-2008, Greeley, CO

Family support services; food distribution; support committee families affected by the Swift ICE Raids of 2006 and the Amalia Cases of 2008.

Recreate 68 Counter-Convention

August 2008, Denver, CO

Helped organize and mobilize different events and communities to bring together diverse and marginalized voices during the Democratic National Convention being hosted in Denver that year.

Transform Columbus Day

October 2007

Helped organize march to change the Columbus Day holiday in Colorado.

PRESENTATIONS

"Los Seis de Boulder, Race, and Memory" Symposium

November 6, 2021, Denver, CO

Session 1A: Teaching and Being Taught by Los Seis de Boulder. Gave a presentation entitled: "Los Seis de Boulder: Insurgent Scholar-Activists and the Radical Pedagogies of a Usable Past".

NACCS 43: ¡Chicana/o Power! Transforming Chicana/o Activism, Discourse and Scholarship into Power

April 7, 2016, Denver, CO

The Tierra Amarilla Youth Leadership Institute: Liberated Land as a Peoples Praxis of Self-Determination.

Art of Social Justice Conference

May 7, 2012, Denver, CO

"Settler Imperialism and Stolen Lands".

Beyond Chicanismo Oral History Project

November 4, 2003, Denver, CO

"Alternative Institutions and Revolutionary Praxis".

Beyond Chicanismo Oral History Project

September 26, 2002, Denver, CO

"Paths of Social Change".

Beyond Chicanismo Oral History Project

September 26, 2002, Denver, CO

"Workshop: Alternative Spaces for Social Change".

The Fourth Annual Conference, The Challenge of Globalization: "The Future of Ethno-Racial Studies in a Global World"

October 11, 2001, Denver, CO

"Political Separatism: A Viable Strategy for the Future".

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY MEMBERSHIP

Volunteer, Al Frente de Lucha. (2000-2018).

Volunteer, Tierra Amarilla Youth Leadership Institute (2000-2018).

UMAS y MEChA de Auraria

Conscious Journey

Los Herederos of Change and Esperanza

PUBLICATIONS

Salcido, D. (2005) "Living in NAFTA: Settler Colonialism in the US, Mexico and Canada; Tierra Amarilla Youth Leadership Institute Dialectics of Mexican@ Liberation". In Turning the Tide; Culver City Vol. 17, Iss. 4, (Winter 2005): 2.

Salcido, D (2003) "Historical Discontinuity and a Struggle in Transition: A Pedagogy of the Dispossessed". In The struggle for La Sierra: a beyond chicanismo experience (26-33).

Salcido, D (2002) "Ricardo Falcon: De Pie Y En Lucha". In Los herederos of change and esperanza present the symbols of resistance: a beyond chicanismo experience. (24-29) Denver: Los Herederos of Change and Esperanza, 2002.

Beyond Chicanismo Anthology

Salcido, D. (2001) "El Centro L.U.I.S.: Community Praxis and Dialectics toward Nationhood" (np).

Beyond Chicanismo Anthology

Salcido, D. (2001) "Political Separatism: A Viable Strategy for the Future" (np).

AWARDS

Auraria Campus Cesar Chavez Peace and Justice Leadership Award, Spring 2014.

Metropolitan State University of Denver Department of Chicana/o Studies Journey Through Our Heritage Award-Mauricio Saravia Poetry Series for Excellence in Contributions to Chicana/o Literature and Poetry, Spring 2012.